

7th Annual Fall Writing Contest

Sponsored by the Central Oregon Writers' Guild

$100 first place prize.

Open to all Oregon Writers

Top ten judged entries published in a chapbook to be available both in print and Epublished.

Top ten placing authors to read their works at the October 18 awards ceremony. The winner of each category will be part of the top ten.

Special award to the highest placing entry by an unpublished writer.

Entry categories:

General Fiction: Mystery/Detective Fiction: Fantasy/SciFi Fiction :Nonfiction:
Memoir: Poetry

Entry length 1200 words or less.

Entries accepted from June 1 - Sept. 1.

Entry fee $10 for Central Oregon Writers' Guild members. $15 for nonmembers.

All entrants receive the scoring sheets and comments from the three judges.

Award ceremonies on October 18, at the new Hampton Inn in the amazing Old Mill District in Bend Oregon. Discounted room rates in place for out of area attendees.

An important part of the contest is to give a voice to writers. Top Ten winners must read their work at the awards ceremony to be a winner and be published in the chapbook. Sorry, no substitute readers allowed.
